T’ruah: The Rabbinic Call for Human Rights
266 West 37th Street, Suite 803
New York, NY 10018

May 8, 2018

The Honorable Richard Burr, Chair
The Honorable Mark Warner, Vice Chair
U.S. Senate Select Committee on Intelligence

cc: All U.S. Senators

Dear Senator,

We write on behalf of close to 2,000 rabbis and cantors across the United States to urge you to oppose Gina Haspel’s nomination for CIA Director. Given Ms. Haspel’s role in the CIA’s now-defunct torture program, a vote to confirm her is incompatible with any kind of meaningful commitment to the prohibition on torture and so-called “enhanced interrogation.” Her oversight of a CIA black site is an extreme moral offense that overrides any other qualifications she might have to serve as the head of the CIA.

As Jews, we believe that every human being is created in God’s image. This assertion applies to all people, friend or enemy. The shame and humiliation caused by torture degrade the divine spark inherent in each of us. Furthermore, the Torah commands not to inflict punishments that degrade the perpetrator. How much more so must dignity be respected in interrogations, where guilt has not been established and where torture neither effectively produces accurate intelligence nor keeps us safer.

But torture is more than just ineffective. It is also deeply immoral. Torture violates the very basic human dignity of the suspects, even if they turn out to be guilty. As the Talmud teaches, “When a human being suffers, what does God say? My head is too heavy for me, my arm is too heavy for me. Thus God suffers over the blood of the wicked, how much more so over the blood of the righteous.” (Mishnah Sanhedrin 6:5)

The rabbis and cantors of T’ruah represent the moral voice of the Jewish community. In 2005, T’ruah was one of the first Jewish organization to condemn American use of torture in the ongoing War on Terror. We are founding members of the interfaith National Religious Campaign Against Torture.

We hope that the United States will never again return to the dark days of state-sponsored torture. We must not appoint officials who fail to respect the power of international prohibitions against torture and the Geneva Conventions.

We urge you to support America’s moral standing and reject the nomination of Gina Haspel as CIA Director.

Sincerely,

Rabbi Jill Jacobs
