For 23 hours a day, for periods of months, years, and even decades, more than 122,000 adults and youth are held in solitary confinement in U.S. prisons, jails, and detention centers. On the 23rd of every month, the National Religious Campaign Against Torture invites you to join people nationwide in actions calling for an end to solitary confinement. Together we can stop the torture of solitary and ensure human rights for everyone.

Here is how you can join us on the 23rd:

- Host a screening of NRCAT's 2022 documentary Torture in Our Name. A link to the 35-minute film/DVD order form, interfaith discussion guide, and sample poster are available for free here: <https://www.nrcat.org/torture-in-us-prisons/torture-in-our-name-film>
- Organize a vigil to call attention to solitary confinement and stand with survivors.
- Host a letter writing campaign to your legislators asking them to support the federal End Solitary Confinement Act or state or local legislation efforts.
- Share photos and updates about your action on Twitter/X, Facebook, and Instagram. Use the hashtag #STOPsolitary
